

LET'S TALK!

Climate Conversations NCW

WATER RESOURCES

Water is a precious resource, especially in our region.

As the world warms, we face greater risk of drought and reduced river flows for people and salmon. Every drop counts!

How much water do you use?

<http://www.watercalculator.org/>

<http://environment.nationalgeographic.com/environment/freshwater/change-the-course/water-footprint-calculator/>

Why avoid bottled water?

<http://storyofstuff.org/movies/story-of-bottled-water/>

<http://www.foodandwaterwatch.org/insight/take-back-tap-bottled-water-wastes-resources-and-money>

<http://www.onegreenplanet.org/animalsandnature/whats-the-problem-with-plastic-bottles/>

Water conservation ideas

<https://ecology.wa.gov/About-us/Get-involved/What-you-can-do/Water-conservation>

<https://ecology.wa.gov/Water-Shorelines/Water-supply/Water-recovery-solutions/Rainwater-collection>

<https://www.chelanpud.org/conservation/water-conservation>

<https://www.chelanpud.org/my-pud-services/residential-services/water-service>

<http://www.thegreenspotlight.com/2010/08/high-efficiency-water-saving-plumbing-fixtures/>

Eco-friendly landscaping

<http://derbycanyonatives.com/>

<https://www.wenatcheewa.gov/home/showdocument?id=1735>

Master Gardeners of Chelan and Douglas County

<http://extension.wsu.edu/chelan-douglas/gardening/mg/>

Trout Unlimited

<http://www.troutunlimitedwashington.org/>

Cascadia Conservation District

http://cascadiacd.org/chelan-county-clean-water-campaign_231.html